

OUR RICHMOND NEWS AND GOSSIP.

Hon. Joseph T. Lawless on Second District Election.

HIS VIEWS AT LENGTH.

Why He Thinks There Will Be No Contest For Mr. Maynard's Seat—A Hot Fight Anticipated on Question of Electing Delegates to Gubernatorial Convention—The Lambert-Davis Nuptials—What the Extra Session of the Legislature is Expected to Do—The Baptist Congress.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 20.—Hon. Joseph T. Lawless, Secretary of the Commonwealth, who is perhaps as thoroughly familiar with conditions in the Second District as any one, said this morning that he thought it was extremely improbable that there would be any contest made.

In an interview this morning Secretary Lawless said:

MR. LAWLESS' VIEWS.

"The returns from any district are all in, and looking over the figures, it seems highly improbable that there will be a contest.

"The Republicans themselves are tired and ashamed of the scandalous treatment biennially accorded the Democratic Congressman from the Second District.

"But apart from this, the returns from this election indicate that a contest would be preposterous. Senator Maynard's majority is 9,910. This is official. I have examined the records in my office for the past thirty years and find that these figures represent not only the largest majority ever given a candidate in that district, but that Maynard received the largest vote cast during that period for any person—Democrat or Republican.

"He received 20,113 votes, or 40 per cent. of the entire voting population of the district, but that Maynard received the Republican cannot maintain that the vote there was suppressed, or that every elector who presented himself at the polls failed of an opportunity to cast his ballot, for the returns show that 60 per cent. of the voting population actually voted. When you reflect upon the vast difference between the voting population and the proportion of that population which qualifies itself by registration to vote, these figures indicate with emphasis the tremendous sentiment in the district against the late Republican candidate and the utter condemnation of the methods employed in the Fifty-fifth and Fifty-sixth Congresses to deprive the people of their duly elected representative. A contest in the face of these figures is an invitation to ridicule—or rascality."

A HOT FIGHT.

There is every evidence that a hot fight will develop in the City Democratic Committee over the question of electing delegates to the Richmond to the next gubernatorial convention.

One side will contend for ward meetings, while the other will hold that the delegates should be chosen in primaries. The advocates of the former proposition point to the manner of choosing delegates to the Norfolk convention last spring as a precedent, and say that ward meetings are much less expensive than primary elections.

The primary people say that the last case cannot be properly taken as a precedent, but go back to the election of delegates by primary to the last two gubernatorial contests. They also hold that, inasmuch as the expense falls upon the candidates, who are always willing to bear it, that the committee should be guided by what the primary people say the voters will demand.

LAMBERT-DAVIS NUPTIALS.

Miss Lottie Suidam Lambert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lambert, and Mr. Horatio Minor Davis, were married at 6 o'clock this evening at the home of the bride's parents. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

The bride was attired in white crepe de chine, trimmed in lace, and carried a white prayer-book. Her veil was caught with pearls. The ribbon girls were Miss Mattie Weir Lambert and Mildred Woodward. They were dressed in white organdy.

The maid of honor was Miss Carrie Lee Davis, of Lynchburg, who was attired in white organdy, with pink ribbons, and carried pink chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids, Misses Bessie St. George Lambert and Lillian Foster, of Norfolk, were the maids of honor. They wore dainty white organdies and carried white chrysanthemums.

The groomsmen were Messrs. Henry Johnston, Sidney Floyd and Landon Garland, of Lynchburg, and Garrett Gooch, of Staunton. The best man was Mr. Robert Graham Lambert.

Mr. H. Minor Davis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas N. Davis, of Lynchburg, and the grandson of the late Rev. Horatio M. Thompson, for many years an eminent minister of the Presbyterian Church in Rockbridge county, as well as a member of the Board of Trustees of Washington and Lee University.

After the wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Davis will live in Lynchburg, where the groom is prominent in both business and social circles. Among the out-of-town guests here to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Davis, of Lynchburg, parents of the groom; Misses Lillian Foster, Norfolk; Carrie Lee Davis and Elsie Davis, of Lynchburg, and Jessie Plancy, of New York.

BLACK-MURPHY.

Miss Nellie Lucille Black and Mr. John J. Murphy, Jr., were married at 11 o'clock this morning at Sacred Heart Church, Rev. Father O'Reilly officiating. The church was prettily decorated in palms and chrysanthemums.

The pretty bride wore a handsome center-broadcloth traveling gown, trimmed in velvet of the same shade. She wore hat and gloves to match, and carried chrysanthemums.

Mr. George Murphy, brother of the groom, was best man, and the ushers were Messrs. Fitzpatrick, of Pennsylvania; Charles C. Hungerford, James E. Phillips, Jr., James T. Disney and T. Wilson Black.

Mr. and Mrs. Murphy left on the noon train for New York, where they will attend the horse show, and on their return will reside at No. 101 West Grace street.

The bride is a petite blonde, and is exceedingly beautiful and attractive. She is the daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth and the late B. J. Black.

Mr. Murphy is the son of Colonel John J. Murphy, and is connected with his father in business. He is popular with a large circle of friends.

THE EXTRA SESSION.

Members of the Legislature on all hands say that if general legislation is to be taken up at all during the extra session, they will demand that it be held back until the Constitutional Convention matter is entirely disposed of.

Hon. Felix M. Jones, of Henrico, seems to have the idea which is prevalent among the large majority of the members on this subject. He said today that a resolution would be offered at the first meeting of the caucus which would forbid the taking up of any matter which did not bear directly upon the election and holding of the Constitutional Convention until the two houses had finally disposed of that question.

Mr. Jones, like many of the other lawmakers, thinks that the session will last forty-five days, and that much general legislation will be passed.

AT THE CAPITOL.

The Governor today issued a requisition on the Governor of West Virginia for Robert Gordon, alias George Gordon (colored), who escaped from the penitentiary, where he was serving a term for housebreaking in Newport News. Guard W. H. Goodman will go to Charleston, W. Va., where the negro is under arrest, and bring him back to prison.

The Governor offered a reward of $50 to-day for the capture of Frank Walker, indicted for the murder of Jesse Bradford in the county of Patrick.

SUPREME COURT CASES.

The following cases were argued in the State Supreme Court to-day: Tiddall vs. Shenandoah National Bank, of Winchester. Argued by R. E. Byrd for appellee and Holmes Conrad for appellant, and submitted.

Van Landingham vs. Buena Vista Improvement Company. Submitted on briefs.

Smith vs. Thomas. Norfolk and Western Railway Company vs. Wood. Miller vs. Byers. Echols' ex'or vs. Brennan et als., and Liner vs. Ingram et als. Passed to the January term.

Saunders vs. Baltimore Building and Loan Association. Argued by Conway R. Sands for appellant and R. Carter Scott for appellee, and continued until to-morrow.

The next case to be heard is Rahm vs. Klerner & Sons, No. 7, on argument docket.

THE BAPTIST CONGRESS.

The Baptist Congress of America began its eighteenth annual session here this afternoon. The address of welcome was delivered by Governor Tyler.

Among the ministers in attendance are Rev. Gordon B. Moore, D. D., of Furman University, Greenville, S. C.; Prof. H. L. Poter, Wake Forest College, North Carolina; Dr. Kerr B. Tupper, of the First Baptist Church, Philadelphia; Rev. J. W. Mitchell, Portsmouth, Va.; Dr. T. A. K. Gessler, Chicago; Dr. A. P. Montague, president of Furman University, Greenville, S. C.; Rev. J. M. Wilber, of Baltimore; Rev. D. S. Hubble, of Charlotte, N. C.; Dr. B. Woodfin, Hampton, Va.; Rev. J. H. Haston, Savannah, Ga.; Rev. O. D. Loving, King and Queen, Va.; Rev. A. T. Lynn, Fredericksburg, Va.; Dr. T. B. Thomas, First Baptist Church, Danville, Va.; Rev. W. T. Clarke, Lunenburg, Va.; Dr. J. J. Taylor, Norfolk, Va.; Rev. C. G. McDaniel, Newport News, Va.; Rev. W. H. Whitsitt, D. D., Louisville; F. M. Goodchild, New York; Dr. Madison C. Peters, of New York; Dr. E. T. Tomlinson, of Elizabeth, N. J.; Rev. C. W. Needham, of Philadelphia; Dr. Grange, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y.; Rev. B. C. James, of Pulaski City, Va.; James R. Doan, of Virginia; Rev. Dr. J. T. Dickinson, of North Orange, N. J.; Dr. Charles H. Dodd, W. B. Mattoon, W. O. Rosselle, J. E. Sargeant, D. D., Frank Dickerson, of New York; Rev. Dr. B. F. Woodburn, of Pittsburg, Pa.; J. W. Bailey, editor of the Baptist Courier, Raleigh, N. C.; Dr. W. C. P. Rhoads, of New York; Dr. Frank Dixon, of Hartford, Conn.

To-night Hon. H. R. Pollard, City Attorney of Richmond, delivered an address on "Is the Trust Beneficial or Injurious to Society."

Mr. Pollard treated the subject ably, and poured some hot shots into the trusts.

CHIEF JUSTICE FULLER.

Chief Justice Melville W. Fuller was in Richmond to-day, and sat in a case in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals.

LEXINGTON.

THE FOOTBALL SEASON—NEW LIGHTS—DISCONTINUED.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

V. M. I., Lexington, Va., Nov. 20.—Only two more games remain to be played by the V. M. I. Next Saturday the University of Maryland pay us a visit and the last game of the season will be played in Roanoke with Blacksburg on Thanksgiving. Both teams are confident of victory and this will, no doubt, be a hard fought struggle.

NEW LIGHTS.

To the delight of the electrical students the longed-for dynamo arrived last week and is now ready for operation. It will be used for lighting the new academic building and for experimental purposes. The engine and dynamo will be run and tested by the cadets and from a practical standpoint the course in electricity has improved wonderfully in the past year; theoretically it can be classed with that of any other college.

THE LITERARY SOCIETIES.

The two literary societies were called out last night and next Saturday they will be reorganized. These societies meet every Saturday night throughout the season and two or three hours are very pleasantly spent in declamations, readings and debates by different ends of the society.

COMPANY DRILL DISCONTINUED.

Company drill was discontinued Friday and battalion drill was taken up, under the command of Major Marshall. This drill will be continued until the corps goes into winter quarters, which will probably be sometime in December.

Life Saved by Electric Light.

An interesting calculation has recently been made which shows that when the electric light has entirely displaced gas oil lamps and candles, there will be 6,000 less deaths annually, these illuminants being so much more unhealthful than electricity. In a like manner there will be far less sickness and disease in the world when every one learns to check the outbreaks of dyspepsia with the great dyspepsia cure—Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Constipation, indigestion, biliousness, fever and ague and malaria are but dangerous signals proclaiming a diseased condition of the stomach. Good digestion is at the base of perfect nutrition. The best food, imperfectly digested, will not be so useful as the poorest food well digested. The Bitters strengthen the stomach, and cures all disorders arising from mal-nutrition. Every one would do well to try it. See that our Private Revenue Stamp covers the neck of the bottle.

SUFFOLK.

Death of Hon. John E. Booker, of The Herald.

A Sketch of His Useful Career—Proposed Extension of the Suffolk and Carolina Railroad—Football.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Suffolk, Va., Nov. 20.—Hon. John Edward Booker, owner and editor of the Suffolk Herald, former president of the Virginia Press Association, and for six years, beginning in 1893, Nansemond's representative in the lower house of Virginia's General Assembly, is dead, aged 53 years.

The end came at 5:25 o'clock this afternoon as the result of a sudden stroke of paralysis, brought on by a cerebral hemorrhage, or rupture of an artery bearing on the brain. The paralysis affected the right side of the body.

THE COMMUNITY SHOCKED.

The news of the death came as a shock to relatives and friends, for Mr. Booker was a most lovable man and well liked. This morning he was in excellent spirits and joked with a bank clerk a few minutes before the stroke. Last night Mr. Booker felt musical and seemingly enjoyed playing the violin to an accompaniment of a daughter, Mrs. Bennett, on the piano.

THE LAST FINANCIAL TRANSACTION.

About noontime to-day Mr. Booker attended to some business in a bank and afterward walked into Dr. E. D. Phillips' office, where he complained of feeling bad. Dr. Phillips thought that Mr. Booker had a premonition of his fate, for there were tears in the eyes which usually bore a greeting smile.

Dr. Phillips administered a dose of medicine. Mr. Booker was attacked with vomiting and soon sank into a comatose state, from which he never rallied. He was taken to his home, at No. 18 Saratoga street, where Dr. J. E. Phillips did all that was possible with avail.

AROUND THE DEATH BED.

Those around the bedside at the last were Mrs. Booker, Mrs. Bennett, Miss Booker, Captain and Mrs. Gomer, Mr. and Mrs. Elam, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Elam.

The funeral will take place at 11 o'clock Thursday morning from the Baptist Church, of which the deceased was a member. Rev. H. A. Bagby, of Richmond, a former pastor, has been asked by wire to conduct the services.

Dr. Phillips administered a dose of medicine. Mr. Booker was attacked with vomiting and soon sank into a comatose state, from which he never rallied. He was taken to his home, at No. 18 Saratoga street, where Dr. J. E. Phillips did all that was possible with avail.

HIS EARLY LIFE.

Mr. Booker was born May 4, 1848, in Prince Edward county, Va. He moved to Charlotte county when quite young, and was elected a commissioner of revenue soon after he was 21 years old. In 1876 he came to Suffolk, and for a time was engaged in running the Washington Hotel with the late Captain Robert S. Elam. He soon engaged with the Suffolk Herald, of which he has been the owner for many years, and which he conducted with considerable success.

The deceased served with credit in the Legislature for six years. He was formerly president of the Virginia Press Association, and also a member of the Grand Lodge A. O. U. W. He belonged to the Blue Lodge and Royal Arch Masons, Knights of Pythias and Royal Arcanum.

His life was insured for $7,600—$3,000 in Royal Arcanum, $2,000 in the Ancient Order of United Workmen, $2,000 in the Northwestern and $600 paid-up insurance in Mutual Life.

Mr. Booker has for several years been chairman of the Nansemond County Democratic Executive Committee.

The deceased was a true friend, a pleasant companion, a loyal progressive citizen, a loving husband and father—an honorable man. Suffolk people are grieved to lose him.

PROPOSED RAILROAD EXTENSION.

Suffolk is to have direct railroad connection with Edenton, N. C. That is now assured by the management of the Suffolk and Carolina railroad. The railroad will have begun grading before the expiration of this week. The survey has been completed and other preliminary steps have been taken.

The extension will begin at Ryland Station, about four miles from the present terminus at Montrose. The distance from there to Edenton, according to the survey, is 17.2 miles. The proposed track is expected to be ready for through trains by next summer. A mild winter would expedite matters.

The country is comparatively level. The most expensive bridge will be some seventy feet in length.

The extension will be welcomed by Suffolk business men, inasmuch as it will open a large section of country, and will give Suffolk merchants a chance to compete with those in Norfolk for Edenton business.

The new road will put Edenton fifty-one miles from here. The nearest rail route from there to Suffolk at present is over ninety miles. The change will also be helpful to Edenton business men. That is on an estuary of Albemarle Sound and is a great fish market.

The Suffolk and Carolina by the proposed extension will become a competitor of the Norfolk and Southern road to some extent. As the longest route

FOOTBALL.

The first football team in Suffolk this afternoon had a final practice preparatory to the game to-morrow with the Norfolk eleven. While the Suffolk team has some men of small football weight, they are regarded as athletic, and there are others whose avocations will run up the average. The heaviest Suffolk player is Rev. B. F. Black, who weighs 220, and who will likely play centre.

THE SPIDER AND FLY.

M. B. Leavitt's stupendous production of "The Spider and the Fly" will be the attraction at the City Hall Theatre Thursday, 22d instant. This organization might aptly be called an operatic extravaganza, as the music is of a high order, interpreted by artists of operatic reputation, headed by Miss Florence Wolcott, the well-known prima donna, whose fine mezzo-soprano has delighted so many music lovers; Miss Marguerite Mayfield, the dramatic contralto, late of the Castle Square Opera Company, New York, and others well known in the musical world. The scenery and electric effects, combined with the magnificent costumes and the feminine contingent, make this an attraction which should not be overlooked. Seats on sale to-morrow (Wednesday) morning at 9 o'clock at Stewart's drug store.

LOST AND FOUND.

Mrs. Luke, wife of Mayor Luke, of Holland, this evening lost a purse containing between $30 and $40 on the Suffolk-Holland county road.

PETERSBURG.

HEAD-ON COLLISION—CHARGED WITH LARCENY.

(Special to the Virginian-Pilot.)

Petersburg, Va., Nov. 20.—A head-on collision occurred on the Seaboard Air Line Railway this morning at 6:30 o'clock at the siding near the Central State Hospital, in Dinwiddie county, between two material trains. The pilots of both locomotives were broken and both of the engines more or less damaged. A colored train hand had two of his ribs broken and was otherwise injured.

IN BANKRUPTCY.

The creditors of Charles F. Smith, of Dinwiddie county, who recently went into bankruptcy, met this morning at the law office of Hon. Wm. B. McIlwaine and proved their claims before Mr. C. P. Caldwell, of Richmond. Mr. Bartlett Roper, Jr., was appointed trustee.

CHARGED WITH LARCENY.

George Hewitt, a young man of this city, has been arrested on a charge of the larceny of about $100. The accused was employed by Mr. W. H. Dorman, who keeps a store on the corner of Sycamore and Union streets, and sold goods on the installment plan. It is charged that he appropriated to his own use money which he received in payment for the goods sold by him.

GALVESTON PREACHER SICK.

Rev. C. M. Beckwith, pastor of Trinity Episcopal Church, Galveston, Tex., who has been quite sick at the home of his brother, Mr. T. S. Beckwith, in this city, is now able to go out.

A lady calling herself Mrs. Henry has been upon our streets and in our stores representing herself as from Galveston, Tex., and asking for money for Galveston sufferers. In answer to questions by those who have resided in the city of Galveston, she gives names for streets and hospitals such as are not known in that place. It is clear from conversation that she has never seen the Island City.

THE ELKS' BAZAAR.

The Petersburg Elks' bazaar opened last night at the Library Hall under the most encouraging auspices, and the receipts were large. Another large crowd was in attendance to-night. The bazaar, as before announced in this correspondence, is held for the purpose of raising funds to build an Elks' Home in Petersburg.

AMUSEMENTS.

"THE SPIDER AND THE FLY."

This spectacle will be presented at the Academy of Music to-night by M. B. Leavitt's organization. The company includes the European artists Miss Edith Craske and Miss Kate Stevens, transformation dancers, direct from the Alhambra, London. The Ahrens, Europe's foremost sensational equilibrist, and the ballet of the Peonies and the Beauty Ballet, the two latest English ballet successes, which Mr. Leavitt succeeded in securing last summer, are now presented in this country for the first time. Miss Georgie Putnam, the queen of extravaganza in general, Miss Florence Wolcott, operatic prima donna, soprano, and Miss Marguerite Mayfield, dramatic contralto. The Automobile Girls, the latest fashionable vaudeville sensation. Sylvia, the queen of electricity, in Grecian postures of the old masters, known as the perfect woman. The Sisters Morrissey in their dance artistic, and many others.

Among Our Cotton Men.

Mississippi and Tennessee report heavy rains.

Spot market in Liverpool advanced 1-16d. Sales, 8,000 bales against 10,000 last year. The contract market advanced half to one point, closing barely steady.

Repairing the Pavements.

Some long needed work on the sidewalks of Bank street is being done. Several gangs of men are making repairs between City Hall avenue and Freemason street, and one can walk these now with the reasonable assurance, if sober, that he will not stumble, fall and break a limb. The work is being well done.

Cove street, in front of Cumberland, needs attention badly, and it is to be hoped will soon receive it. There are also some bad places on Church street. A continuance of the beginning made

A Tear for a Pain

Only expectant mothers, or those who have borne children, know the full meaning of these words. Every woman should tell every other woman about "MOTHER'S FRIEND," that wonderful liniment that dispels all pain incident to childbirth. There is nothing like it.
